

HERITAGE COMMISSION MEETING -- Town Office Building

Wednesday, 10 July 2019

The meeting was called to order by Marilou MacLean at 6:39 pm. Also present were Bob & Karen Servacek, Harriet Wilson, Susan Raban, Jay Badger, and Rich Zacher. The minutes of the June 19 meeting were approved unanimously.

Marilou was pleased at the turn-out for the Bell Re-dedication on June 29, including the participation of the members of the Hutchins family. She was disappointed that the Granite State News did not publish the article she provided inviting attendance.

The next celebration will be the Ice Cream Social on July 13 at 3:00 pm at the Town House. Harriet has put up posters around Wakefield for the event. Heritage members are asked to arrive at 2:00 pm for set-up (two tables and chairs). A couple people will bring brownies and everyone is asked to bring ice cream scoops. Rick Surette will supply maple syrup for toppings. Marilou will print off coloring pages and we will provide crayons for the children. The Town will purchase whatever else is needed. We will serve ice cream and hot fudge sauce from the kitchen, with a table for other toppings by the pass-through.

The next event will be the Bar B Q on August 3. We did not go over this in detail as this is the 11th one, and we pretty much know what to do. We should arrive at 3:00 pm for set-up - tables, chairs, place settings, etc. Jay Badger offered to help out. Harriet will be in touch with Patricia Golden and Steve Michalsky to see if they can help this year. Marilou will order corn and tomatoes from McKenzie's, and will order the meat. She will also ask for the jalapeno corn bread we've had in the past.

The meeting adjourned at 6:55 pm. The next meeting will be Wednesday, August 21, at 6:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Harriet Wilson, Recorder

Historical Trivia:

On this date, July 10, in 1879, Joseph Buzzell was hanged (after his second trial) for the murder of Susan Hansen.
