

CHRISTMAS,
1899

BROOKFIELD.

The Brookfield Sabbath School gave an interesting entertainment in connection with a Christmas tree, on Saturday evening, Dec. 23. The town hall was laden with presents for the little ones, and older ones also. Following is the list of exercises:

Singing,	"Message of the Bells"
Responsive Reading,	School
Prayer,	Elder Charles Colman
Singing,	"Loving Jesus"
"Christmas,"	Nine Children
Verse,	Leon Willey
Verse,	Raymond Cate
"Angels' Bells,"	Lura Peavey
Singing,	"Blessed Message"
"Three Bad Boys,"	Ralph Hanson
"Frostwork,"	Elanie Smith
"Johnny's Letter,"	Tracy Willey
"Christmas Tree,"	Augusta Brown
"Christmas Bells,"	Lottie Stevens
"Three Holiday,"	Three Children
"Rocket's Christmas,"	Bessie Willey
Singing,	"Gospel Bells"
"Christmas,"	Rhetta Brown
"Our Heroes,"	George Fifield
"Where Do You Live?"	Herbert Rines
"Prophecies Concerning Christ's Death,"	Nine Young People
"Wishes,"	Arthur Smith
"Santa Claus and Mouse,"	Flossie Hutchins
"Bronnie's Christmas,"	Lillian Brown
"Christmas Gift,"	Minnie Brown
"Christmas Day,"	Lottie Hanson
"Months of the Year,"	Twelve Children
Singing,	"Beautiful Star"
"Papa, Rosie and Me,"	Margaret Parker
"Santa's Reindeer,"	Vera Cate
"The Reason Why,"	Anna Brown
"Welcome Santa Claus,"	Florence Hutchins

Distribution of Presents.

Closing Address, Lura Peavey
Singing, "God be with you till we meet again."

Thus closed one of the best efforts in this direction ever given in this town. Much credit is due to Elder Charles Colman, Mary Colman, Leon Colman and Charles Churchill, and also to the children of the Brookfield Sunday School, who labored to make the affair a success.
