
BROOKFIELD BUBBLES.

Henry Drew has bought the Noah Wilkinson place and is about to move, Mr. W. having gone back to Wolfboro Junction to live.

Charles Coleman is teaching school in the Churchill district and has quite a large number of scholars.

Mr. Herbert Churchill is at home once more and we are glad to see him, as he has been away for some time.

Charles Churchill is buying apples this fall. Apples are quite plenty here, but not so much so as last fall.

Mrs. Mary Hanson is about to move back with her son, Richard, at the corner, where she lived for sometime after her daughter was shot.

ACORN.

BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.